7. [G] A.s.b.l., a non-profit association under Luxembourg law, with its registered office in Luxembourg, represented by [first name/surname], [profession], residing in [domicile].

by virtue of the capacities in which they act, have agreed among themselves the articles of association of a cooperative company as follows:

Section I: Company name - Registered office - Corporate purpose - Duration - Share capital

Article 1: A société coopérative under Luxembourg law is hereby formed between the parties present and any other natural or legal person who subsequently adheres to these statutes and is admitted into the company, which shall be governed by the amended law of 10 August 1915 on commercial companies, as amended by the amended law of 12 December 2016 on the creation of societal impact companies and by these statutes.

Article 2: The corporate purpose of the company is [please specify].

(Important: It must be possible to assess the achievement of the corporate purpose using performance indicators).

Article 3: The company name shall be [please indicate], followed by "Société d'impact sociétal" or the abbreviation "S.I.S." .

Article 4: The registered office is established in (address), Luxembourg. It can be transferred to any other location within the same commune by simple decision of the single managing director, respectively the Management Board. It can be transferred to any other location in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg by decision of the general meeting of the partners. The company can open agencies, branches or offices in any other location in Luxembourg or abroad.

Article 5: The duration of the company is unlimited.

Article 6: The company may affiliate with any other company or association.

Article 7: The corporate fund, hereafter called "share capital" or "capital", is constituted by the shares subscribed or still to be subscribed by the partners. It is unlimited.

The minimum immediate subscription of share capital is set at EUR [amount], represented by [amount in figures] ([amount in words]) impact shares and [amount in figures] ([amount in words]) distributing shares, each with a par value of EUR [amount in figures] (EUR [amount in words]), all subscribed and fully paid up.

At least 50 percent of the share capital of the company must, at all times and under any circumstance, consist of impact shares.

Apart from capital shares, no other type of securities may be created.

The partners may at any time request the conversion of their distributing shares into impact shares. Impact shares cannot be converted into distributing shares.

All impact and distributing shares are registered shares. The company recognises only one holder per share.

Article 8: Each share represents one vote in the decisions taken during the general meetings.

Article 9: The company shares can be freely transferred between the partners. They may not be transferred to third parties.

Article 10: The company can buy back its own shares.

Article 11: A share register will be held at the company's registered office in accordance with the legal provisions. The share register can be consulted by any shareholder on request.

Article 12: Each partner is only liable up to the amount of their subscription and there is no undivided, joint and several liability among them.

Section II. Admission - Resignation - Exclusion

Article 13: The admission of a new partner must be approved by the general meeting of partners.

Article 14: Any partner who wishes to withdraw from the company must notify their resignation by registered letter, with acknowledgement of receipt, to the company within the first six months of the company's financial year. The withdrawal only becomes effective at the end of the financial year.

Article 15: The exclusion of a partner may be pronounced by a vote at the general meeting, based on serious grounds, in particular if the partner concerned did not fulfil their obligations as a partner.

Article 16: Upon resignation or exclusion, a partner is only entitled to the reimbursement of the nominal value of their shares in the company.

Reimbursement will only take place once the partner's commitments and obligations to the company have been cleared.

Article 17: A partner who resigns or is excluded, or the creditors, beneficiaries or heirs of a partner may not, for any reason whatsoever, place under seal the assets and documents of the company.

Section III. Administration - General Meeting - Surveillance

Article 18: The company is administered by one or more managing directors, partners or otherwise. In the case of several directors, they will form a management board. The managing directors are appointed and dismissed by the general meeting of the partners who represent more than three quarters of the share capital and who also decide on the powers conferred, the remuneration and duration of their mandate.

Unless the partners decide otherwise, the managing director or managing directors have all necessary powers to act in the name of the company under all circumstances.

In any event, the company shall be administered autonomously in accordance with the law and the managing director or directors shall take their decisions independently.

With regard to third parties, in the case of a single managing director, the company will be committed by the sole signature of said director, and in the case of more than one managing director, the partners' meeting will determine the power of signature.

As simple representatives of the company, the managing director or directors take on no personal obligation due to their position concerning the commitments properly taken by them in the name of the company; they shall only be responsible for the execution of their mandate.

Article 19: Each partner may take part in collective decisions whatever the number of shares held.

Each partner has a number of votes equal to the number of shares held or represented; each partner can be validly represented at meetings by the bearer of a special power of attorney.

Article 20: Collective decisions are only validly taken if they are adopted by partners holding more than half of the share capital.

Collective decisions concerning an amendment of the statutes must be taken by a majority of the partners representing more than three quarters of the share capital.

Article 21: Pursuant to article 6 of the amended law of 12 December 2016 establishing the creation of societal impact companies, the supervision of the company is entrusted to one or more approved statutory auditors, within the meaning of the law of 18 December 2009 on audit professions, appointed by the partners' general meeting.

The approved statutory auditor(s) may only be dismissed by the partners' general meeting on serious grounds or with their consent.

Section IV: Financial year - Distribution of profits

Article 22: The financial year begins on the first of January and ends on the thirty-first of December of each year, with the exception of the first financial year, which starts on the date of formation and ends on the thirty-first of December [year in words].

Article 23: At the end of each financial year, the accounts are closed and the Board of Directors draws up the company's financial statements in accordance with the legal provisions in force.

Article 24: Any partner can obtain information on the inventory and the balance sheet at the registered office of the company.

Article 25: The company's income recorded in the annual balance sheet, less overheads, write-offs and charges, constitutes the net profit of the company.

After the contribution to the legal reserve, the balance is freely available to the partners.

In the event of a distribution of profits, the holders of distributing shares will be entitled to the payment of dividends in proportion to the number of distributing shares they hold. The profit allocated to impact shares is exclusively aimed at the achievement of the company's corporate purpose and is fully reinvested in the maintenance and development of the company's activities.

Article 26: The following performance indicators will be taken into account for the evaluation of the performance objectives relating to the achievement of the corporate purpose, respectively the distribution of profits:

- [indicator];
- [indicator];
- [indicator];
- [indicator];

Section IV: Dissolution - Liquidation

Article 27: The company shall not be dissolved by the death, suspension, bankruptcy or ruin of a partner.

Article 28: In the event of the dissolution of the company, the liquidation shall be performed by one or more liquidators, partners or otherwise, appointed by the partners, who shall define their powers and emoluments.

The general meeting will choose to allocate any liquidation bonus in accordance with Article 11(2) of the amended law of 12 December 2016 on the creation of societal impact companies.

Section V: Final Provisions

Article 29: For all matters not covered by these statutes, the parties declare that they refer to and comply with the legal provisions governing cooperative companies, of the amended law of 12 December 2016 on the creation of societal impact companies and their subsequent amendments.
