Grants and loans

The financial assistance consists of several grants and a student loan.

The basic grant (bourse de base) is automatically granted if you meet the eligibility conditions.

For the student loan and other grants, you must check the corresponding boxes.

Student loan

yes no

As of the academic year 2020 - 2021, the student loan is no longer granted automatically, but only upon request by the student.

The student loan consists of a basic loan and, depending on your situation, a supplement for enrolment fees and/or a supplement based on social criteria.

Housing aid / Aides au logement (APL, ALF, ALS, etc.)

I am receiving housing aid. (see the mandatory documents ➔)

I do not receive housing aid. (see the mandatory documents ➔)

No student housing aid exists in my country from residence.
(no documents are required)

I can not provide any documents at the moment, because:

I have applied for housing aid but have not yet received an answer from CAF.

I have not yet applied for housing aid.

Mandatory documents

- a certificate attesting the monthly amount of housing aid received by the student * (see comments)
- a certificate of non-payment or termination of payment of the aid * (see comments)

Comments:

The certificate must:

- be recent (not be dated prior to 1 February 2021)
- be in the name of the student
- have been issued by the family allowance fund in the region where you have your student address
- provide proof of the monthly amount of housing aid received since 1 August 2020.

Attention

Failure to provide elements stating the start date or date of termination of payment of a monthly allowance (family allowance or housing aid), will conduct the Ministry of Higher Education and Research - CEDIES to automatically deduct the amount of aid during 6 months between 1 February 2021 and 31 July 2021.

You may in this case, if applicable, submit an application for reassessment of your grant. The application must be submitted in writing together with a certificate issued by the competent administration stating the start date or date of cessation of payment of the allowance concerned.
