Your rights regarding your personal data :

As part of its public interest duties, the Directorate of Inland Navigation and Logistics (Direction de la navigation fluviale et de la logistique) of the Ministry of Mobility and Public Works (Ministère de la Mobilité et des Travaux publics) collects and uses your personal data so your application can be processed in accordance with the national or European legal provisions in force.

The processed data, or any portion thereof, that is required to carry out the public duties or pursue the legitimate interests of the recipient(s) may be added to national and European databases.

The processed data may also be used for statistical purposes. Furthermore, it may be stored for the purposes of public archiving.

It will not be retained for more than 2 years after the expiry of the document, unless specified otherwise by the legal provisions.

This information must be provided so your application can be processed. This information must be accurate and must reflect the reality of your circumstances; otherwise, your application may be denied. In addition, you may be liable to sanctions if your application contains any false declarations.

The legal rules on the protection of personal data, in particular the rights of the persons concerned by the processing operations carried out (right of access to data, right to rectification of data, right to erasure of data, right to object or right to require restriction of processing), are applicable in accordance with and subject to the exceptions and derogations provided for.

Where applicable, a complaint relating to the rights of the persons concerned may be referred to the National Commission for Data Protection (Commission nationale pour la protection des données – CNPD). A claim may be sent directly to the Directorate of Inland Navigation and Logistics by post, or by email to its D.P.O. at dpo@tr.etat.lu, or to the State Commissioner for database protection (Commissaire à la protection des banques de données de l'Etat) at 15, boulevard du Jazz, L-4370 Belvaux.
